

DRAGON WILL BE PARADED TODAY

Chinatown will be invaded by the great dragon this morning. The monster with the horrible jaws and sinuous body will traverse the streets of Chinatown and in consequence that section will take on a holiday look.

It is now the festival of the harvest moon and that has brought out the green and gold reptile. He will be attended by dozens of gaudily-clad Chinese. Wherever the monster pokes his nose, especially if it be at the entrance of a store or residence, firecrackers will be discharged to ward off any bad luck he may bring. The procession will take place about 10 o'clock and the same time tomorrow morning.

Deicious suckling pig will be served to the epicures who lunch at the CRITERION today.

Get in line.
No long waits—all lunchers served promptly.

Judge Robinson continued the hearing to Monday, giving the respondent until Saturday to file an answer. S. H. Derby appeared for complainant.

A decision has been rendered by the Tax Appeal Court in the case of the Oahu Railway & Land Co., sustaining Tax Assessor Holt in assessing for $300,000 property that the company claimed was not assessable to it. Another decision sustains the Pacific Hardware & Steel Co. in its return of $262.50, which the assessor raised to $5000.

Answers of H. L. Kerr and others, respondents in the Honolulu Clay Co. case, are to the effect that the valuation of the property for purposes of incorporation at $75,000 was not inflated. Real estate was higher then and the company had good prospects of success, but later building operations declined, the demand for bricks ceased and real estate dropped.
